State of Punjab v/s Mukesh Thakur and another

Sub.: Application for Medical Examination of above Accused

Respected Sir,

It is submitted as under:-

1. That, the above said remand paper / case is pending before this Honorable court wide FIR No.:0343/17 under Sec.379B, 506,120-B of IPC (P.S.: Basti Jodhewal).
2. That, both the accused were arrested on 19/08/2017 that about 5:30 to 6 AM. However, they were produced by I.O./Police before this Honorable Court on 20/08/2017. After 3 P.M. The said production of accused was beyond 24 hours of their arrest, which is gross violation of law.
3. That, on their production, this Honorable Court asked the I.O. as to when, the accused were arrested and to whom intimation about their arrest was given. The I.O. replied and informed the Honorable Court that the accused were arrested on 19/08/2017 at 6 a.m. and intimation to their relatives was given at 6:30 a.m.
4. That, the accused person before their production, ^{W.W.} not medically examined by I.O. and straight way produced to honorable court. However, subsequently they were medically examined as per direction of this honorable court. It may be noted; the accused had made oral complaint before the honorable court about ill-treatment and beaten by Police. Upon, their complaint, the Honorable Court directed them to submit written complaint about ill- treatment. However, somehow they arranged for paper and written their complaint but, could not file on record as on the said day it was Sunday and Honorable court / Magistrate left the court.
5. The I.O. and Police Officers managed the Medical Officer/Doctor, who examined them but, did not mention injuries/ marks in his report. The said conduct of medical officer is also against the law. Apparently, at the relevant time both the accused also made complaint to the doctor and also shown their injuries. But with a view, to shield the erring police officers, he did not give true report of medical examination, mentioning injuries.

6. The accused are still having marks of injuries on their person. Since then the accused are in jail and there is no possibility for self-inflicting or other kinds of mischievous submission. Therefore, it is just and necessary to direct the concerned jail authorities to conduct medical examination of accused and submit the report before this honorable court, mentioning types of injury, age of injury, weapon/ object of injury, in the medical report.

PRAYER:

It is therefore most humbly prayed to direct concern Jail authority or other authority to again conduct medical examination of the aforesaid accused, and to submit detail medical report before this honorable court for further order, in the circumstances stated above and in the interest of justice.
